DEDICATION

Mr. John J. Gibbons

The Class of 1943

dedicates this Class Book, Volume 30, to Mr. John J. Gibbons, our Class Advisor, whose assistance through our High School years has proved invaluable to us. We are indebted to him for his fidelity, sincerity, and prudent judgment by which he has guided us, and we gratefully appreciate all he has accomplished for the benefit of the Class of '43.

FACULTY

TRIBUTE TO OUR FACULTY

THOMAS L. GIBBONS
Superintendent of Schools

EBEN S. COBB
Principal

In a few more days, the Class of 1945 will pass through the portals of Clinton High, never to return. As our High School careers approach an end, we realize with deep gratitude the enormous service our faculty has rendered in order to prepare us to face the world. There could not be a more appropriate place to express our thanks than in our Class Book.

At many times, our opinions differed from those of our teachers, but we realize that theirs were always sincere and helpful.

So we give our thanks to members of the faculty, whose teachings will remain with us always.

In Memoriam

Miss Comaskey
Died January 5, 1943

The Senior Class respectfully dedicates this page to Miss Anne T. Comaskey, whose untimely death was a severe blow to us all. A member of the faculty since 1923, she gave tirelessly of her time and energy in behalf of our hopes and ambitions.

Though she has departed from us, she will never be forgotten; and shall always be remembered as one of our most beloved teachers.

May this memorial, although wholly inadequate, serve as our tribute to an ideal member of the teaching profession.

MADELINE H. AGNETTI — General Course

Photography Club

Madeline is one of the nicest girls of the Senior Class. Although she seems to be one of its quieter members, all those who know her realize looks are deceiving.

Madeline never burns the midnight oil, but manages to get the necessary grades in all subjects.

Her plans for the future are indefinite but the class of "43" knows she will succeed and wishes her the best of luck in her future life.

MARGUERITE E. ANDERSON — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee

Peggie is a good student as well as a gay merrymaker. She has personality, a sense of humor, and loves dancing, swimming, tennis, hiking and numerous other outdoor activities.

She intends to be a medical secretary, and we are sure she will be successful. Good luck in your future work, Peggy.

ELEANOR P. BALL — College Course

Vice-President 2, 3; Class Ring Committee; Photography Club; Prom Committee; Field Hockey 2; Class Book Staff; Junior Marshal; Basketball 1

Eleanor's Irish blue eyes and hearty laughter indicate her temperament—lighthearted and always ready for play; never so much as the shadow of a worry crosses her mind from one end of the day to the other. Efficient and ready for action, Eleanor is always there when the fun begins and ready for more when it's over. Her unquestioned popularity is shown by her having been chosen vice-president of the class in her Sophomore and Junior years.

Eleanor isn't exactly of the studious type, but she does "manage to get by." Upon leaving C. H. S. Eleanor plans to become a nurse. Lots of luck and best wishes from all of us!

REGINA BAZYDLO — General Course

Photography Club

Now we turn our attention to one of our class members who is blonde and a very likeable person. Although her name did not appear on the testimonial list all the time, she managed to get by in all her subjects.

She hopes to enter the Fairchild School in Worcester. No matter what she does, we know she will be a success. Here's wishing you Luck from '43, Reggie.

JOHN BECK — General Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma

John is a [illegible] who has gained the friendship of many during his four years at C. H. S. He is a delightful boy and is ever ready to help a friend in need.

Although he possesses a lack of interest in studying, John has managed to clear the barrier with favorable marks.

He finds much delight in nature and sports such as hunting and fishing. Although John's career has not been disclosed, we are sure that he will be a success in his chosen field. Best of luck to you John, from all your classmates.

MARGARET A. BODMAN — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee

Margaret, better known as "Peg", is a girl whose good looks and personal appearance make her one of the most popular girls in Clinton High. This was proven when Peg was picked the "Prettiest" and the "Most Glamorous" girl in the class.

Peg was a great admirer of all sports and could always be found in the midst of the cheering section, especially at a football game.

Although Peg was a familiar figure at all dances and social affairs, she managed to get her share of testimonials.

The Class of '43 wishes you the best of luck in your future work, Margaret.

ARDELLE H. BRIDGES — Commercial Course

Inter-class Plays, Senior Show, Photography Club, Prom Committee

Now we come to Berlin's much appreciated contribution to this High School. Her pert wit and pleasing personality have made her one of our most popular girls. She has done her bit in the class plays and her talent helped make them very successful. Though she has never worried too much about marks, she has always been a better-than-average student.

The class of '43 wishes you the best of luck, Ardelle.

JOSEPH P. BURGWINKLE — College Course

Tau Sigma, Baseball

Burditt Hill has in Joe another of its truly representative graduates. Happy-go-lucky, with a pleasing smile for everyone, he is one of the most popular members of the class.

Joe is also one of our ablest athletes as anyone who has ever attended the C. H. S. baseball games and those of "Robinson's Red Raiders" can well attest.

His future plans are indefinite but whatever field he enters, whether civilian or military, we know he will be a credit to the class of "'43." Good luck Joe.

PHYLLIS LOUISE BURNS — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Prom Committee

A large quantity of chatter, a bit of Irish, and a dash of laughter—mix the ingredients well and there's "Phyll." Ever faithful, and ever mirthful, "Phyll" is one who will never be forgotten by the members of the Class of '43. Her sincerity is genuine, and her friendship, priceless. Her willingness to help where assistance is needed has been invaluable to us.

Phyllis plans to bcome a hairdresser in the future. Good luck to you Phyll from all of us!

NANCY W. BURNSIDE — College Course

Photography Club, Field Hockey, Junior Prom Committee, Women's Club, Cheerleader 3, 4, Christmas Show 4, Class Book Staff

Intelligence, friendliness, sociability, energy—these are the qualities which make Nancy an outstanding member of the Senior Class.

Nancy has a sparkling smile for everyone. She has attended almost every social affair held. She has led the supporters of the Clinton High Football Team in lusty cheers for two years, and in spite of these activities, her name has never failed to appear on the testimonial list.

As yet Nancy is undecided as to her life's work, but whatever she may decide to do, we know she will make good.

IRENE C. BURTON — General Course

Photography Club, Prom Committee

Irene is a petite, blonde, blue-eyed girl, and possessor of one of the most happy, cheerful and carefree dispositions of any of her classmates. Popular, pretty and vivacious, she has been a favorite with both sexes and no doubt, her departure will leave the C. H. S. a little on the quiet side.

At the present Irene is strictly Navy, and hopes for a quick ending of the present conflict so she and George can renew an old acquaintance. Best of luck, Irene, from "Dear Old '43."

PAUL BUTLER — Technical Course

Tau Sigma, Orchestra, Photography Club, Aeronautics Club.

We are grateful to Bolton for giving us Paul. His genial wit and good humor are in evidence wherever he is. Although he is noted for his demure silence in class, he received more than his share of high marks when report cards were handed out.

At the present time Paul is contemplating joining the Navy, and with him go wishes for the best of luck from "'43".

EUGENE JOHN CAFARELLI — College Course

Tau Sigma (Pres.), Photography Club, Football, 4.

Now we come to that worthy member of the Class of "'43", "Gene" Cafarelli, known to his intimates as "Cat". His generous, thoughtful nature together with his vibrant personality makes "Gene" one of the most popular boys in the Class.

"Gene" participated in football at C. H. S. and was an important cog on the 1942 squad. His popularity was shown by his being elected Pres. of the Tau Sigma. "Gene" was also popular with the "Weaker Sex" who succumbed to his polite, suave manner.

"Gene" intends to enter the armed forces upon graduation and the class of '43 wishes him the best of luck.

FRANCES M. CATALDI — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Class Book Staff

Now we come to one of the most friendly and carefree girls in our class. "Fran" has an amiable disposition and a delightful sense of humor.

Besides personality, "Fran" has been endowed with artistic ability and brains. She ranks among the highest in our class. Good marks come naturally to her.

When school days are over, "Fran" wants to be an efficient secretary for some deserving businessman and we know she will be a success.

Best wishes from the class of '43. Frances.

ALICE CECCHINI — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Alice is one of the most friendly and light-hearted girls in our class. She is better known to her many friends as "Chick".

Sports interest her keenly, and she is always at the games rooting for the home team.

As to the future, "Chick" is undecided, but we are sure that whatever she does, she will make a success of it.

Good luck, "Chick," from '43.

MARY E. CIPRIANI — College Course

Activities: Class Banking Committee, Chairman of Junior Prom Decoration Committee, Editor of Class Book, Photography Club, Class Representative at D. A. R. Meeting, Junior Marshal

A twinkle in her eye, a smile on her lips, Mary has won the hearts of all her classmates. She is always ready to lend a helping hand—there couldn't be a more enthusiastic worker.

Mary's interests, however, are not confined to her studies, for she is an active participant in all school's activities. She also has a gift for art, and considerable talent along that line.

Mary intends to attend Regis College in the fall; so the best of luck Mary, from all of us.

JOSEPH E. CONNOLLY — College Course

Tau Sigma, Varsity Football 3-4. Captain of Varsity Baseball Team, 3-4. Freshman-Sophomore Football 1-2, Photography Club.

"Joe" is our premier athlete and we look up to him with pride. He has been a participant in sports since his freshman year and acquitted himself creditably on all occasions. His leadership is shown by the fact that he was elected to the captaincy of 1943 Baseball Team by his fellow teammates.

Joe plans to enter the Marine Reserves and we feel sure that he has the "stuff" to make a fine officer. The Class of "'43" extends its sincerest wishes for your future success, Joe.

MARY R. CONNELLY — Commercial Course

Photography Club

"Rita" is one of the few redheads of our class. Always with a ready smile, she is everyone's friend.

Of course, being of such a happy-go-lucky nature, her books never weighed heavily under her arms nor upon her conscience; moreover, her mind was much too occupied with corresponding to the Armed Forces to spend much time on homework.

"Rita's" future profession is as yet unknown but whatever you choose, Rita, the graduating class wishes you the best of luck.

RICHARD CONTRATTI — College Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma, Football 4.

Richie is one of our rare combinations of athlete and good student. He has an attractive smile and is always well dressed.

We remember him best for the athletic ability he demonstrated on the Varsity Football Team for the past year. His sportsmanship, cheerfulness, and willingness to help have made him a much sought-after friend.

Your stay with us has been much too short, Richie, and we regret to bid you farewell, but whatever you decide to do, the Class of '43 will be rooting for your success.

IRENE DE BLOIS — General Course

Photography Club

Irene can hardly be called the quiet, studious type of girl; but she has a willingness to help others in every way possible.

She liked to have a good time and never permitted studies to interfere with her pleasure. Yet her report card was never covered with the dreaded red ink.

Irene's future plans are not known at this time, but whatever she does, the class of '43 wishes her the best of luck.

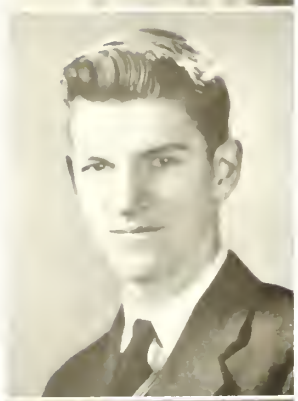
THERESA L. DIRIENZO — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee

A tiny member of our Class with a mischievous grin and a hearty laugh—that's Theresa. Always with a joke at the tip of her tongue or some mischief brewing behind that apparent concentration on her studies, she is a favorite with the members of our class.

Pupils know, without a doubt, that she always contributes her share of noise and seems to be the personification of vitality at its height.

Best of luck to you always, Theresa.



JOHN P. DONNELLY — College Course

Tau Sigma, Football 1, 2, Photography Club

John is another resident of the Burditt Hill section. He, one of the famous few who never fell for girls, is quite a serious youth when he's not otherwise; generally he's otherwise.

He was one of the mainstays of the 1940-41 Freshman-Sophomore grid-squads, and was also a member of the Central A. C. Softball team. Naturally, with such activities, he couldn't spend much time in studying which didn't seem to weigh too heavily upon him, anyway.

John's future plans are in question at the present, but the Armed Forces will, no doubt, solve this problem. Best of luck to you, John, from '43.

HELEN P. DONOHUE — College Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff

Petite, pert, and pretty—a bird's eye observation of Helen, that little blonde you see with the huge armful of books. Although she is tiny, her marks prove she is something more than the ordinary student. As a friend and pal, she is steadfast and true-blue; no one could ask for more.

Quiet, studious, intellectual, and yet fun-loving, she has won the hearts of the students as well as the praise of her teachers.

She plans to enter Our Lady Of The Elms College next year, and may she have the success there that she had at Clinton High. Best of luck to you, Helen!

PATRICIA MARY DROOGAN — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff, Senior Show 4, Junior Marshal

And now we present Patricia, one of our most talented actresses—Remember her performance in the Senior Show! Her winning smile and charming personality make her popular with everyone.

Pat attends all the social functions of the school and we know of no one who enjoys them more.

Whatever she does after graduation we know she will do well. So, here's to never changing, always pleasing Pat. Will we forget her? We guess not!

SOPHIE DUBOVICK — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, (Music), Class Book Staff.

"Better late than never"—yes, the Class of 1943 was indeed fortunate when this petite, blue-eyed, blonde joined us our Junior year. Sophie lost no time in getting acquainted and soon became one of the most popular members of the class.

"Blondie's" school spirit will never be questioned, for her presence was recorded at all our social and school activities.

Sophie plans to be a secretary, and with her friendly manner, she will be a success. Best of luck from the Class of '43.

WILLIAM DUNCANSON — College Course

Tau Sigma, Photography Club

And now we introduce one of the most popular boys in the school whose cheerful personality is well known by all his classmates. He is a staunch supporter of all class activities and is always ready to come to the aid of anyone needing assistance.

Bill's future plans are not known at this time but the class of "'43" sincerely wishes for him the best of everything.

JAMES P. DURKIN — College Course

Tau Sigma, Junior Prom Committee

"Jimmy" is one of the many representatives from the Acre. He is quiet, but nevertheless, is keenly interested in basketball, and belongs to various teams in his vicinity.

As far as studying goes, we believe he was one of the most faithful members of our class. It can be said, to his credit, that he never came to school without being fully prepared.

He is a hard working, industrious fellow—one whom we know will bring credit to the Class of 1943.

JANE DZICZEK — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Jane is one of the very few girls who can manage to stay on the testimonial list and still have her share of fun.

She may be found attending most of the Senior dances, and is an ardent football fan as well.

During Jane's four years with us, she has gained a host of friends, male and female, by her carefree manner and happy disposition. We are sure she will gain many more in the years to come.

The class wishes you the best of luck in whatever field you choose to conquer, Jane.

EVELYN E. FOGG — Normal Course

Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club

Now we turn to "Betty" who is well-liked by everyone for her pleasant personality and good nature. In class she is a good student, for her lessons are always carefully prepared, and for this reason she never has to worry in regard to her marks.

She is always seen at every social event of C. H. S.

Betty's ambition is to become a nurse and the class of '43 wishes her the best of luck for the future.

CLEMENTINE A. FOLIA — Commercial Course

Class Book Staff, Photography Club

"Take a letter, Miss Folia!" This is what "Tina" will probably hear quite often in the near future. Her ambition is to enter the business world, and if laughter and a sense of humor have anything to do with it, then her success is assured.

Among other things, she is noted for her dependability and is a very popular member of our class.

Her ability to make merry of even the most trying situation has established her reputation as a wonderful sport and a swell pal. So here's to a true friend who never keeps the midnight oil burning but always did and always will get by. Best of luck, Tina, from the class of '43.

ELLA GRACE FORTUGNO — General Course

Photography Club

And now we present Ella who hails from that well-known district, the North End. Her friendly and pleasant manner has made her a favorite personality in C. H. S.

School and studying never caused her too much concern, yet she managed to pass all her subjects with plenty to spare.

Ella intends to become a member of the nursing profession and we are confident that she will be successful. The best of luck in your chosen career, Ella.

RUTH CAROLINE FREY — General Course

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee

Ruthie is one of the most friendly and likable girls in our class. Her quiet and unassuming manner has won her many loyal friends. Ruth is a lover of music, both classical and modern, and is a regular attendant at concerts. Her favorite sport is ice skating at which she is very proficient. Ruthie hasn't told us what she intends to do in the future, but whatever field she chooses we know he will get ahead. The class of '43 wishes you the best of luck, Ruth.

FRANK GADOMSKI — Technical Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma

Frank is one of the quieter boys in the class but gets along very well with everyone.

He never had time to take an active part in school activities but was always an enthusiastic supporter of all C. H. S. events.

Frank's future plans are not certain but we all know he will succeed in whatever he does.

Good luck, Frank.

MARY K. GANNON — General Course

Field Hockey, Junior Prom Committee, Class Ring Committee, Interclass Dramatics 1, 3, Photography Club

Mary—a lovely girl with a friendly personality and a natural beauty that needs no cosmetics for emphasis. Her fun-loving, casual, carefree disposition has turned the key to all our hearts. She is an all-around sports enthusiast, and is a constant attendant at the games of C. H. S. Mary, at present, has not yet completed her future plans, but we know that no matter what profession she chooses, her success is assured.

KENNETH STANFORD GARBER — Technical Course

Tau Sigma, Prom Committee, Senior Show, Baseball 2, 3, 4, Football 2, 3, Mgr. 4.

Kenny, a smiling, blonde haired young man is one of the most popular members of the class. His carefree attitude and pleasant manner make him a welcome addition to any group.

Ken is another of our able athletes having played with distinction on both the baseball and football teams.

He hopes to become an Ensign in the U. S. Naval Air Corps and we know that the lessons learned by him on the field of sports will stand him in good stead in his chosen career.

Good luck, Kenny.

JEAN D. GAROFOLI — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Secretary 3, Junior Prom Committee, Class Ring Committee

A tiny brunette is Jean, with a lively personality, which is more than enough recompense for what she lacks in size. There seems to be an intangible "something" about Jean, which makes us all sit up and take notice of her. Although a lover of sports and outdoor life, and an active member in all class activities, she still hasn't missed a single quarter on the testimonial list! Jean intends to be a secretary, and I know—we should all like to be the lucky boss. Best of luck, Jean, from the Class of '43.

GEORGIA GEORGESON — College Course

Photography Club

And now we introduce dark-haired, dark-eyed Georgia, who hails from the "North End". She is friendly, studious, and co-operative. She has a loyal school spirit and is often seen with the "Gang" either at a football game (doing her share of the cheering) or at other social activities. "Gia" is one of the youngest in our class. She feels that this is a disadvantage, for it prevents her from taking up nursing immediately. However, we are confident that when she enters her chosen field, she will be successful.

CELIA GIOKA — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Celia is another representative of the "Acre". Although outstanding in all her studies, she has exerted most of her energy on her secretarial studies in order to become as efficient as possible in them. Because of her interest in people, her friendliness, and her vivacity at all social gatherings, she is sure to gain her end which is to find her niche in the Business World. Since there are so many opportunities available in these times, we know that she will find just what she is hoping for.

JOHN V. GRADY — College Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma, Associate Editor

"V" as he is more commonly known ranks among the outstanding boys of "'43". His distinct personality and integrity have won for him many lasting friends. His ratings in marks and in social life are very high, as the records plainly show.

John is undecided as to his future, but the class of "'43" is sure that he will be a success in whatever field he ventures.

Best of luck, John, from '43.

RITA E. GRAVEL — Normal Course

Photography Club, Class Book Committee, Junior Prom Committee

The familiar trio—Bernie, Rita and Sadie—are well-known to our class. Rita seems to have a rare gift for dancing. Her rhythmic steps are a part of every High School Social activity and give ample proof of one of her many accomplishments. Her winning smile and popularity make her an outstanding member of our class. Rita intends to become a nurse in the future. The class of '43 wishes her the best of luck.

JOHN A. GREALIS — College Course

Photography Club, Football 3, Prom Committee, Tau Sigma, Aeronautics Club

Now we come to "Jackie" Grealis, one of the "Turner Boys". Jack is one who always did his homework, and still somehow played football, attended gym, and Friday night dances as well.

Almost any afternoon he may be seen at either one of two places: working in a local hardware store or down at Turner Hall with his "Gang".

For the future, Jack hopes to enter Uncle Sam's Navy. We are sure the Armed Forces can use men of his quality. Best of luck, Jack, from all of us to you.

OTTO GRIEHSHAMMER — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma

In our Senior year, we were privileged to have Otto join us as a classmate. His quiet and unassuming manner, his genuine interest in all school functions have made him a welcome addition.

With regret, we bid you farewell, Otto, but sincerely wish for you future success and happiness.

BARBARA A. GUADAGNOLI — Commercial Course

Photography Club

And now we present Barbara, who hails from the California district. Our first impression is that she is quiet, but after one is with her for a few minutes she proves to be quite the opposite. Barbara had difficulty getting to school on time and could be seen in the Lecture Room at recess on countless occasions.

Barbara plans to enter Becker College in the fall. We all know she will win the success she deserves.

FRANCES A. GUADAGNOLI — General Course

Photography Club

Remember those long, trying days in Mr. Dyer's algebra class? Undoubtedly they were a trial to Frances, but she faced them undaunted because she has one of those gentle, understanding natures which conquer everything in their course. We are sure that Frances, in her own quiet way, will make a great success of her chosen career—nursing. So here's to Frances, with the best of luck from the class of "'43".

JAMES HALLINAN — General Course

Tau Sigma, Football, Photography Club, Football Club

Although quiet and unassuming, Jim was never at a loss for words. He never seemed to worry about studies, but what senior boy does?

He was a backfield man on the football team for two years and was well-known in football circles as an aggressive and courageous player.

The best of luck from '43, Jim.

GLORIA E. HEDBLOOM — General Course

Photography Club

Gloria's career in C. H. S. has been far from uneventful; football games, dances, and lecture-room socials always seem to attract "Glo-ree-ah." But anyone who supposes that fun is her only concern is very much mistaken. Gloria has hopes of becoming a nurse. Her engaging smile and crisp personality, which make her a welcome addition to any classroom, should go a long way toward making her the same to a sickroom. The best of luck to you, Gloria.

MARIE M. HEDBLOM — Normal Course

Photography Club

During her four years in Clinton High, Marie, a fun-loving, good-natured girl has managed to accomplish two things: to get passing marks and to have a good time.

No social function was complete without her presence and on many a Saturday afternoon, she could be seen and heard cheering the football team to victory.

Marie intends to make nursing her life's work and we all wish her the best of luck in her chosen profession.

DOROTHY H. HEINOLD — Commercial Course

Shorthand Circle, Photography Club

"A woman's hair is her crowning glory," is an ancient phrase, but it could never be applied with more truth than to Dorothy. As possessor of a crown of red gold locks, she has become one of our class's most distinctive members. But Dot certainly doesn't rely upon her looks to carry her through; she is interested in all sports and school activities, and her school marks are a credit to her. Dot's future plans seem to be well established, as she has already started her career as a stenographer in a local corporation. The very best of luck to you, Dot.

ELEANOR HEINOLD — Commercial Course

Photography Club

We all know how much good humor Eleanor possesses, and how her radiant personality has rallied an army of friends behind her. Eleanor is very studious, and you'll always find her name among the testimonial students when each quarter rolls around. "Ell" is an athletic girl and one of her favorite sports is bowling. Her future course is undecided, but whatever she chooses, we know she will succeed. So good luck to you, Eleanor.

WILMA J. HENARD — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Lovely to look at, delightful to know, with a beauty all her own—these are only a few of the things which make Wilma one of Clinton High's best liked girls. She is a lover of all sports, and a loyal supporter of all class activities.

Though Wilma doesn't keep the midnight oil burning, her name has appeared on the testimonial list every quarter. She plans to be a secretary and we are confident of her success. Good luck from '43, Wilma.

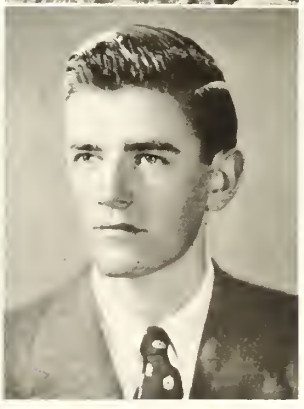
JEAN HOBAN — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Field Hockey, Thanksgiving Show 3

Jean made a indelible impression in our hearts during the three years she spent with us in Clinton High and to show our admiration we have reserved a place for her in our year book.

She is now a student at the Academy of the Assumption, Waltham, Mass.

We do not know her future plans but we are confident that she will be successful in whatever she decides to do. Good luck from '43 Jean.



ROBERT HUTCHINSON — College Course

Tau Sigma, Photography Club

This introduces "Hutch" a likeable fellow with a good natured disposition. As he always has his lessons prepared, he is one person the teachers welcome in their classes.

Although he didn't participate in many sports, he usually managed to show up at most of the games to help encourage the players. "Hutch" spends his spare time ushering at the local theatre.

Bob is undecided about his future, but whatever he does, "'43" wishes him the best of luck.

ANNA M. HYNES — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Field Hockey 2

Anna needs no introduction. Her sunny smile and cheery disposition have placed her among our best liked girls, from lowly freshmen to sophisticated seniors. She is a conscientious student and, luckier than most, was able to mix study and pleasure with success. A loyal supporter and a great rooter of the teams, she could always be depended upon to be present at all football games. We look forward to seeing her someone's "stenog". But whatever road she takes, we of '43 are confident she will succeed.

ALBERT J. IACOBUCCI — General Course

Tau Sigma, Photography Club, Football 3-4

Strong and silent? Well, we can vouch for the strong part as can his opponents on the gridiron; and from outward appearances, Al would appear to be the silent type, but to his friends Al is a very pleasant associate.

His football ability is proven by the fact that he was chosen All-Midland League Tackle in his Senior year.

Al never had difficulty with his studies, and with his ability to make friends, we are sure he will go far in his future work.

The best of luck from the Class of "'43", Al.

GILDA INGANO — Normal Course

Photography Club

A quiet appearance is deceiving where this pretty Miss from the Acre is concerned. Her sterling character and diplomacy establish her as a real friend, come what may. Rarely putting in overtime on studies, she never gave faculty members anything to worry about when it came to marks. Gilda's favorite pastimes are skating, swimming, bicycling and archery. To this must be added her flare for drawing which has won her much favorable attention. Gilda plans to join the parade of "Women in White", and how we envy the patients!

PHILIP J. JOYCE — College Course

Photography Club, Prom Committee

"Dobbin" left Clinton High for Holy Cross early in February to become a member of the N. R. O. T. C. there. His leaving left a deep void among us, for his ready wit and winning personality made him a welcome addition to any group.

"Phil" maintained an enviable record in all his subjects in spite of his participation in numerous school and outside activities.

The Class of '43 wishes you the best of luck, "Phil".

HELEN KALINOWSKI — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Light-haired, brown-eyed, pleasant to look at, delightful to know—Helen is one of the most likable members of our class. Although Helen might give the impression of being quiet, '43 can inform you differently on the subject. She is a staunch supporter of every class function, and her name frequently appears on the testimonial list.

We do not know what profession Helen has chosen, but she will undoubtedly be a success. The class of '43 wishes you the best of luck, Helen.

PAULINE G. KAMPER — College Course

Photography Club, Class Book Staff, Class History

The first impression one receives of Pauline is that she is quiet, but just give her a chance, and she will soon dispel any such illusions. Pauline's pleasing personality and sincere friendship make it difficult to find a more likable pal.

Although Pauline spends considerable time on her studies, she always finds time to help in making our class activities a success.

Pauline plans to enter Radcliffe College, and the class of 1943 sincerely wishes her the success she so truly deserves.

PAULINE KARTALOS — College Course

Honorary Member Clinton Women's Club, Photography Club, Class Book Staff

Pauline is books and quietness, a shy smile, a blush, and a somewhat colorless but refreshing individual. She is a person of few words but at the same time she has the gift of being a very good listener. By a vivid imagination and by sheer persistent effort she has adapted herself to her studies of Mathematics and Latin, and successfully mastered them. If Pauline continues to exert will power and applicability, resolution and foresight, she will make her life successful.

JOSEPHINE M. KELLY — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Let us now take "Josie" one of the regular girls in our class.

To glance at Josie you would imagine her to be a reserved, quiet girl, but when one gets to know her one finds that "Jo" is quite gay.

As for study, Josie doesn't believe in studying too hard or worrying about marks, but she always manages to get by.

Josephine intends to enter business school, and we know she will be a success. Here's luck, Josie, from the class of '43.

MARY A. KELLEY — Normal Course

Photography Club

"Cahforma's" contribution to Clinton High's Class of '43 is 5 ft. 2 in. of wit, charm, and humour. A worthy representative, everyone will agree, for Mary's pleasant disposition and friendliness have won many friends for her in her four years here.

She is a loyal supporter of all the school activities, and her familiar voice can be heard cheering the boys on at all the football games with the rest of the "Cali Gang."

Mary plans to become a member of the nursing profession. Here's to you, Mary, from the Class of "'43",—nothing but the best.

JOSEPH J. KILCOYNE — General Course

Class Treasurer 4; Interclass Show 1, 2; Thanksgiving Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Show; Photography Club; Tau Sigma

What shall we say about Joe? There are no words to express all that he means to us; clever entertainer; chosen leader; faithful comrade and class officer. His quiet smile made us love him and trust him and know that he would not fail us ever. He has been, and always will be, more than our treasurer of funds; he is our treasurer of memories and friendships and all that Clinton High has meant to us. We award to him our special Medal of Honor.

MARY T. KITTREDGE — Commercial Course

Prom. Committee, Class Book Staff

Mary, always welcome because of her sunny smile and pleasing personality, is one of our very popular girls. The sound of rushing feet, a split-second before the tardy bell, announces her arrival each day.

She has always been a loyal supporter of all class activities, and is also an ardent sports fan.

Although she never acquired any grey hair worrying over the next day's lesson, she always kept out of the red and squeezed in a few testimonials as well.

After graduation, Mary plans to enter Wilfred Academy of Beauty Culture. Best of luck, Mary, from '43.

RUSSELL H. KRACKHARDT — Technical Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma, Aeronautics Club

Russell is indeed one of the most scholastic wonders the town of Berlin has produced. He is a persistent, persevering fellow who believes in doing all chores which are assigned him, before doing anything else. This is the simple reason why Russell's name appears on the testimonial list without fail.

Russell's career lies in engineering. Presently he intends to be a pilot for the Naval Air Corps. Best wishes and the best of luck from the Class of '43. We are sure that your future will be a successful one.

DOMINIC LAMBERTO — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Associate Editor, Tau Sigma

We now turn the spotlight upon "Dom," who undoubtedly belongs to the student group of C. H. S.

To his many colleagues he leaves an "unforgettable character," marked with integrity and understanding. Dom's main ambition centers around aviation. He hopes to become a member of the U. S. Navy Air Corp some day.

The class of "'43" wishes you the best of everything in your chosen career, Dom.

WILLIAM LANG — College Course

Varsity Baseball, Photography Club, Tau Sigma, History Circle

And now we present another one of the boys from "Down-Under." In Bill, we have that unusual combination of student and athlete. During his four years in Clinton High, he has maintained an enviable record in all his subjects and his ability as a baseball player is well-known throughout the Midland League.

Bill's quiet and generous nature was appreciated by both teachers and pupils alike.

Upon completion of his High School course, Bill intends to enter Naval Aviation. The best of luck from '43, Bill.

PETER F. LAVELLE — College Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club; Football 2, 3, 4; Football Captain, 4.

And now we present a man who needs no introduction, for his exploits on the gridiron have been acclaimed not only by the students of C. H. S., but also by the many sports fans as well.

Peter never believed in burning the midnight oil, yet he managed to get the necessary grades somehow.

He hopes to enter Notre Dame some day where we all know, he will be a great success. The best of luck "Al" from '43.

EDWARD LEMANSKI — Commercial Course

Tau Sigma; Junior Prom Committee; Photography Club

Ed is another of our quiet boys who has made many friends during his stay in C. H. S.

He was a welcome member of the class, for he was always ready to help out in making class and school activities successful.

We don't know what Ed's future plans are, but we do wish for him the best of luck in his future life.

LUCILLE E. LENDA — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Another Burditt Hill contribution to Clinton High is "Lou", whose pleasant personality has endeared her to all.

Although a loyal supporter of all the school activities, she still managed to receive her share of testimonials. At recess you're sure to find her at her regular hang-out in Mr. Mitchell's home-room—another addition to the gang in the corner.

Lucille plans to continue her studies at a secretarial school and when her classmates of "'43" see her again, we know she will be speeding along the road to success.

JANET P. LES — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Take a friendly smile, a charming personality—and you have in a nutshell a description of Janet.

Although she has attended most of the school activities, she still has managed to stay at the top of the testimonial list without too much effort on her part.

Her sense of humor has made her an indispensable member of the gang of happy-go-lucky girls in the corner of Mr. Mitchell's home-room.

Janet plans to enter the field of Beauty Culture and we, the Class of '43, wish her the best of luck in her work.

THERESA F. LYNCH — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Theresa is a quiet, unassuming girl with a way which has won for her many real friends. She is ever kind and generous; her ready smile is always in evidence, and her pleasant nature gives her entry into any gathering.

We know with certainty that the many sterling qualities which she manifested in her career at Clinton High, will guarantee her great success in life.

In parting, all we can say (and we say it with the utmost sincerety) is, "Good luck, Theresa, and all the happiness in the world to you."

ETTORE J. MARINI — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma

Like many others in the class, Eddie worked afternoons and so found little time to participate in any extra-curricular activities. However he never failed to give his moral support to all class and school functions.

A quiet and serious minded student, Ettore never neglected his studies and always received excellent grades in all subjects.

He intends to become a farmer, "When The Lights Go On Again," but presently yearns to serve his country in some capacity in the armed services.

The best of luck, Ettore, from "'43".

THERESA M. MASCIOLI — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Theresa is one of the serene, tranquil girls of our class. Evidently she is a firm believer in the policy of "Safety First" for she seems to think twice before she speaks. She has an appealing personality, and a broad contagious smile. One of Theresa's shining qualities is her eagerness to help her classmates in their moments of misery

With this spirit we can see Theresa's future will be a bright one and a credit to C. H. S.

ADELINE T. MAZZEI — Normal Course

Photography Club

Sweet Adeline, with her endearing charm and poise, and a smile that goes a long way, is one who will be long remembered by all her classmates. She has a way of somehow getting through her studies without having them infringe upon her more pleasurable pastimes. Her easy-going casual attitude always makes a stranger feel at ease in her presence.

Her great ambition is to be a nurse. Good luck to you, Adeline, from '43.

DONALD McDUFFEE — College Course

Photography Club, Tau Sigma

Here we have one of the Burditt Hill Boys, better known as "Duff."

To the class he is considered as the rather quiet type, but those who know him have a different opinion. He loves to argue and is always ready to give his opinion on any subject.

Duff spends his afternoon hours working as a clerk at Brockelman's Market—Clinton's leading Market!

His future ambition is to join the service of Uncle Sam. He plans to enter the Naval Air Corps. The Class wishes you the very best of luck, "Duff."

PATRICIA McNALLY — General Course

Interclass Dramatics 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Show; Prom Committee

No matter where you find "Tricia," whether cheering at the football games, dancing in the Music Hall, or serving cokes at the "Vernon" you can't help noticing her pleasant smile, friendliness and keen wit.

"Tricia" successive appearance in all our class plays has proven her an outstanding actress.

She intends to join the "White Parade" and we know without doubt she'll be a success.

Best wishes from '43, Patricia.

LENORA C. McNAMARA — College Course

Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee

The smiling sage from the suburbs of Greeley Hill—quiet, retiring—yet ever alert.

As a student she applied herself to the books with a characteristic sincerity and as a result she reaped a harvest of good grades—always ready to meet and deftly handle any situation—always keenly interested in everything worthwhile.

On the fairway of the future we know that she will do well and continue to bask in the sunshine of success.

RAYMOND McNAMARA — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Despite his quiet manner, Ray has managed to make many friends during the past four years in C. H. S. He has never been known to burn the "midnight oil" and yet he always manages to come through.

Ray is an ardent lover of nature as his outside activities show, and he enjoys nothing more than discussing his many interesting hunting experiences.

Although his future plans are indefinite, we know that success will accompany him wherever he goes.

Best wishes and lots of luck from '43, Ray.

JANE McFELL — College Course

Photography Club, Field Hockey (2), Co-Captain, Junior Prom Committee; Thanksgiving Show 3, Christmas Show; Secretary 2, 4;

Lovely to look at? Yes! Delightful to know? Yes, again! A good dancer? Chalk up another one for Jane.

She has been Class Secretary her Sophomore and Senior years. During this time, she has shown herself to be a faithful and industrious worker.

Imprinted in our hearts is a name that will neither tarnish nor disappear, for it is written indelibly in our book of memory. To it, we offer tribute, for it stands for the truest and most loyal of friends—Jane.

SADIE M. MERRIMAN — College Course

Prom Committee, Class Book Staff, Photography Club

Auburn haired, green eyed Sadie is one of the well-known Senior girls. She has a personality full of fun, pep and friendliness. Among her many and varied activities is "jitterbugging", and judging from the number of her dancing partners, she must know her stuff." A school dance would not be complete without her.

Sadie plans to be a nurse in the future, unless a Marine changes her plans. Best wishes for the future, Sis.

ROBERT P. MITCHELL — College Course

Photography Club; Ring Committee, Football

In introducing Pete, we present a brilliant student, a gentleman, and one of the best-liked members of the class.

"Pete" was certainly a busy man during his High School days—working in "Brocks", playing football, studying. We often wondered how he managed to do all so well!

Pete left C. H. S. for Holy Cross in February to participate in the N. R. O. T. C. there, and although our hearts were saddened by his premature leaving, we were cheered in knowing that he will carry high the traditions of C. H. S. as a Navy officer.

Good luck and Godspeed, Pete.

PAUL MOHAN — Commercial Course

Class Book Staff; Tau Sigma; Photography Club; Prom Committee

"Five by Five" is Paul's most fitting description, and putting it together with a great personality and friendly smile we have a superb classmate. Such traits as these make Paul a popular boy among both sexes.

Although he has no great love for studies, Paul manages to pull through somehow with ease. His favorite subject is History, and he has never failed to brighten up the classroom with his wit at some time or other.

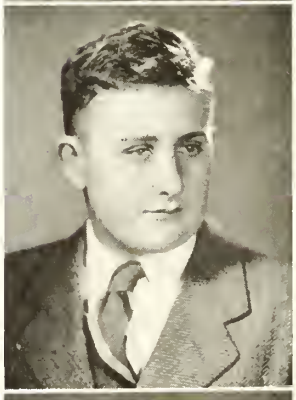
Paul's ambition is to become a member of the U. S. Marine Corps. Lots of luck and best wishes from '43 Paul.

BERNARD M. MORAN — Commercial Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club; Class Book Staff

In every class there is a group of quiet, modest young fellows, who share their labors eagerly and faithfully along with their classmates. Bernard is one of these, but despite his quiet manner he has won many friends with his wit and likable disposition.

His many friends know that whatever field he decides to enter, his sincerity and willingness along with best wishes from "'43" cannot but help him achieve his goal.



MARGARET M. MORAN — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Prom Committee; Ring Committee; Class Book Staff
Thanksgiving Show, 3

Just think of five feet four inches of pep and you think of Margaret. Her smile is cheerful; her nature generous and friendly; she makes a good friend and one well worth having.

Although quiet and reserved among strangers, with her friends she is very lively and full of fun. Margaret's pleasing personality and jovial spirit have won her a countless number of friends.

Best wishes, Margaret, from the Class of '43.

BARTHOLOMEW M. MURPHY — College Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club, Prom Committee

"Bart", as he is known by his fellow classmates, is a quiet and thoughtful lad. At least, that is the impression acquired on first meeting him. But members of the Burdett Hill Central Athletic Club have a different opinion. Bart, holds not only the office of treasurer, but is also captain of their softball team. Bart is a sportsman in the full sense of the word; his golfing ability being on par with some of the best golfers at Mountain View.

Bart hopes to enter the U. S. Navy in the near future. Best wishes from the class of '43, Bart.

ELEANOR M. MURPHY — College Course

Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee; Class Book Staff; Field Hockey, Interclass 1, 3; Thanksgiving Show 3; Class Ring Committee; Basketball 1

To all of us, "Tommy" is known as the girl with the happy, carefree disposition. Ever a lady, with a keen sense of humor and a ready wit, it is no small surprise that "Tommy" is the friend of all. Yet there is a deeper tone to her nature beneath her smiling exterior. "Tommy" studied hard and learned quickly. She did everything she undertook well and was ever a part in all social events.

She intends to enter Simmons College in the fall where we all know she'll make good. The best of luck from "'43", "Tommy."

HELEN C. MURPHY — Commercial Course

Shorthand Club, Photography Club

Helen is naturally quiet, truly intelligent, ever willing, and one of our most attractive girls. All who know Helen realize the enduring quality of her friendship; she is always ready to help others and do her share at all times.

Helen has been a staunch supporter of every class or social function and managed to keep her name on the testimonial list every single quarter.

Helen's future plans are indefinite but whatever she does, we wish for her the success and happiness which she so richly deserves.

CHRYSULA NICHOLAS — Commercial Course

Photography Club, Shorthand Circle, Class Book Staff

In her quiet, retiring manner, "Chris" has impressed us with her pleasant and lady like ways. Possessed of a well-modulated voice and a clear mind, she speaks with the air of a young lady with firm convictions.

Although "Chris" is a testimonial student, don't get the idea she is a constant bookworm. She spends a great deal of her time outdoors and is fond of sports.

Chris has not taken us into her confidence, concerning her future plans, but the members of the Class join in wishing her the best of luck.

DOROTHY E. NICHOLAS — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Tau Sigma

"Not too tall, nor too short; neither is she too noisy or too quiet, but just right." "Dot", although full of vim, vigor, and vitality, is certainly a serious-minded and clear-thinking individual, as her marks testify. Her friendship and loyalty are gifts to be cherished by all her friends. With her lovely smile and competence, her success in business school is assured. All our best wishes for success go with you "Dot."

LEON L. OLBRYS — Technical Course

Aeronautics Club; Photography Club; Tau Sigma

Leon is a very studious and serious scholar. Every recess he can be found industriously buried in his books, so as to utilize every spare moment, and in his extra time, aeronautics seem to be his main interest. He is taking the technical course, and has intentions of being an engineer in the field of aeronautics. Whatever way the future may turn, we know that Leon will come out on top.

Here's luck, Leon, from the class of '43.

GEORGE E. O'MALLEY — General Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club; Varsity Football 4

"Sautz" is another of those "Acre" boys, who has made himself known in C. H. S. He is a quiet, generous and thoughtful student. He is an usher in one of our local theatres and there he has acquired a host of friends. His cheery nature makes him a pleasant addition to any group.

George was a hard-running half-back on the 1942 Football Squad. He is also a basketball player of some repute, having played with some of the leading teams in Clinton.

The Class of '43 wishes you the best of luck, George.

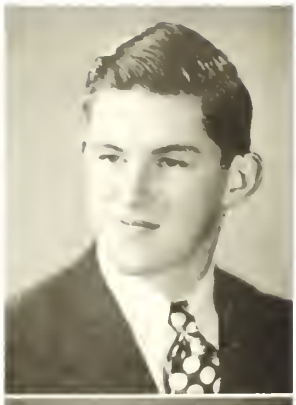
WALTER PATRICK O'MALLEY — College Course

Tau Sigma; Football 3; Photography Club

Walter is another of our boys from "Down-Under" who made his presence felt in Clinton High. Remember how our classes were enlivened by his cheery nature and pleasant wit!

"Mig" was a member of the foothall squad in his Junior year and won the plaudits of the fans for his many fine performances. This year, he worked afternoons and so was unable to play. Needless to say, he was sorely missed by the team.

He is a member of the Marine Corps Reserve and expects to be called to active duty early in July. Good luck, Walter, from "'43".



ALBERT T. O'TOOLE — College Course

Photography Club, Prom Committee, Tau Sigma

Al's sincere and pleasant manner has made him a friend to all his High School classmates. A gentleman at all times, he has won the respect of the faculty members as well.

Without too much studying on his part, Al has managed to receive good grades. He is usually present at most of the school functions.

We enjoyed our associations with you, Al, and wish you the best of luck and happiness in the future.

MARTIN O'TOOLE — College Course

Prom Committee; Tau Sigma; Photography Club

"Pinky" as he is better known, is one of the well-known boys of C. H. S. His popularity is largely due to his agreeable character and pleasant smile.

His scholastic ability is indicated by his record that shows marks well above average. He is very interested in sports particularly rifle and pistol shooting.

It is believed that Pinky's ambition is to join some branch of the U. S. Navy. Wherever you may go, the class of '43 knows that you will be a credit to your school and to your country. The class of '43 extends its best wishes to you, Pinky.

THERESA M. O'TOOLE — Commercial Course

Field Hockey, Co-Captain; Prom Committee; Photography Club; Class Book Staff; Class Ring Committee

Extremely sincere, exceptionally studious, enthusiastically willing and athletically inclined are but few of Theresa's traits that are known to us.

Although quiet and reserved in the class room, "Terry's" wit and good humor make her outstanding as a student and friend.

With your scholastic records, and high ambition we are certain "Terry" that you'll be successful in whatever profession you choose.

DOROTHY E. PECK — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Shorthand Circle

Dot is a girl who has always been interested in her school work. She is very fond of dancing and is a riot at a party. You have heard the saying "Good things come in small packages." Well, that's Dot Peck. She hasn't decided what she wants to be as yet, but the Class of '43 wish her luck in whatever she undertakes.

HENRY WINTHROP PICKFORD, JR. — Technical Course

Photography Club

Now C. H. S. presents "Hank" Pickford, a brilliant young student who left the good old town in his Junior Year to go to Staunton Military Academy. It is unusual to put a picture of a scholar who didn't graduate from C. H. S. in the classbook, but since "Hank" got such high marks in his first three years, we think he deserves a place in our book of memories.

So long, "Hank" and good luck from C. H. S.

ALICE M. PRENDERGAST — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Alice is an even-tempered, merry member of our Senior Class, seemingly very quiet on first glance; but glance again, and "Al" is in the midst of mischief. With her blue eyes always laughing and never serious, she has become a favorite with those who know her.

Although Alice's plans for the future are as yet undecided, we are confident that she will succeed in any project she undertakes. Good luck, Alice, from the class of '43.

EMIL E. REGONINI — Commercial Course

Class President, 4; Senior Show Committee; Junior Committee; Class Book Staff; Photography Club; Tau Sigma

Now we come to the most popular member of the Class of '43. As well as being our class president, Emil is one of the well-known ushers at the local Strand, and does fine work with both jobs. Emil is the envy of all girls because of those curly locks which he cares for so tenderly. Although not a testimonial student, Emil manages to get good grades. Knowing the success Emil has brought to the Class of '43 we are sure he will succeed in whatever he undertakes in the future. Good luck, Emil.

LORRAINE ROSENTHAL — General Course

Photography Club

Boston Garden may feature its skating experts, but Clinton proudly presents its own roller skating queen: cute, brown-eyed Lorraine, from the North End. Lorraine is very talented, popular, and liked by everyone. When not skating Lorraine spends most of her time writing to one of her Army favorites.

Although Lorraine hasn't had much time for studies, she still manages to get an occasional testimonial.

Lorraine is undecided about what career she will pursue, but whatever it may be, the class of '43 wishes her continued success. Hats off to you, Lorraine!

PATRICK H. RUBERTI — Commercial Course

Thanksgiving Show, Photography Club; Tau Sigma, History Circle

Representing the male population from "California" is Pat, and a better one couldn't be found. He is a tall, blonde boy with twinkling humorous eyes, and a friendly grin. This, together with his pleasant disposition has made him everybody's pal.

Pat is a faithful supporter of all our sport activities and drops in once in a while to our social activities. Not very often, for he says that he belongs to that very small group of boys who isn't interested in girls—that is what he says.

He hasn't made any definite plans for the future but we know he will be a success in whatever field he enters. Best of luck, Pat, from the class of '43.

EDITH B. RYLL — Normal Course

Photography Club

"Edie," a pretty brunette with laughing brown eyes, hails from the Acre. She is one of the most likeable girls in the class. She attends all the social gatherings and participates in all social activities. This popular lassie never bothered studying much, but managed to keep those red decorations off her report card.

Edie plans to join the parade of "Women In White" this fall.

The Class of '43 wishes "Edie" the best of luck in her chosen field.

PAULINE L. SANGSTER — Commercial Course

Prom Committee, Senior Show Committee, Photography Club

Pauline is the blonde bombshell that struck Clinton High in her Sophomore year. A pretty blue-eyed blonde— No High school dance would be quite complete without her smiling presence.

Pauline's ambition is to be a nurse. Good luck, Pauline, we're all for you.

MARIE M. SANMARTINO — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Class Book Staff; Prom Committee

The girl with sparking brown eyes and mirthful laughter, came to us three years ago from Sterling. She seems to have a talent for tact, and always has a complimentary remark for her classmates. Marie has a genuine jovial disposition and is "as constant as the northern star" in her loyalty to friends. Insufficient as these few words may be as to Marie's fine character each of us knows that her winning ways will surely lead her to success in her chosen field, that of a typist.

GRACE M. SANTANGELO — General Course

Photography Club; Prom Committee; Thanksgiving Show 4; Class Book Staff

Now we come to the envy of them all—She is none other than Grace. Her clothes are acclaimed by every student in C. H. S., and her personality has won her great fame.

She has been active in all activities at the school. Her sense of humor and sparkling personality have made her a general favorite with all.

The class of '43 wishes her the best of luck in her calling, which she claims is secretarial work. Good luck, Grace.

WINONA B. SAWERS — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Thanksgiving Show 3

"Nonie," from Sterling, is our talented, sophisticated classmate with a refreshing sense of humor, and a delightful personality. Her school marks are good, and her dancing ability even better. She makes friends quickly and easily and seems to be able to adapt herself to any situation. Her future is promising and we know she will be fortunate. So best of luck to you, Winona, and may your dancing carry you on the wings of success.

ROBERT R. SCARPA — General Course

Photography Club

To this wide and bewildering world we give another worthy contribution, Robert Scarpa.

His sense of humor and sparkling personality have made him a general favorite with all.

Scholastically speaking, Bob was never a mathematical genius, but the consistency with which he passed difficult exams made him the envy of every member of his class.

Bob is undecided as to the future, but the class of '43 knows that he will succeed in whatever vocation he chooses.

RUTH E. SCHOBERT — Commercial Course

Photography Club

And now we present Ruth, a girl with a sunny smile and charming personality—characteristics that have made her one of the best liked students in the school.

Ruth is one of our members who has been able to mix work with pleasure successfully. Seldom missing from any of our social functions, she still managed to get by in all her subjects and to work afternoons in the Press.

Whatever she does in the future, we are sure she will be successful. Good luck, Ruth, from "'43".

HOWARD SENTER — General Course

Football '42, Tau Sigma, Photography Club

Howard is a young man of Sterling character who joined us during our Junior year.

He was an outstanding football player during his Junior year but outside activities made it necessary for him to give up the sport this year.

The class of '43 wishes you the best of luck in your future work, Howard.

BERNICE N. SMITH — General Course

Photography Club

Worcester's loss was Clinton's gain when "Bernie" entered the portals of Clinton High. A former student at Commerce High, Worcester, Bernie joined us a few months ago and in this comparatively short period, has gained the friendship of Seniors and Under-classmen alike. Bernie enjoys dancing and her presence contributed to the success of the Music Hall dances on Friday nights. The class of '43 wish you the best of luck in your future life, "Bernie."

ALOYSIUS STACHELEK — General Course

Prom Committee, Tau Sigma; Photography Club

With his quiet pleasing personality, Al has made many friends in C. H. S.

He was a good student and always received marks well above the average.

Al worked afternoons so wasn't able to take a very active part in school activities.

C. H. S. wishes you the best of luck, Al.

HELENE C. STARK — College Course

Photography Club

Here we present one of the nicest girls in our class of "'43". During her four years in High School she has been noted for her scholastic ability and we are certain she will make a prominent and important place for herself in the world. Helene expects to attend Concordia College in New York and we all wish her the best of luck for her future. She is a grand person and well deserving of it.

VICTORIA DER STEPANIAN — Commercial Course

Class Book Staff; Photography Club; Thanksgiving Show 2; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4

Vicki is the possessor of a charming personality and a gay disposition.

She is a lover of sports and numbers skiing, roller skating and horseback riding as her favorites.

Not only is she one of our testimonial students, but she is also a very gifted violinist. Proof of this is the fact that she is a member of the Worcester Philharmonic Orchestra. She has an ambition to join one of our many higher ranking symphony orchestras.

With such talent, Vicki, we are sure that your ambition will be realized. Best of luck from '43.

CARL STRUNZ — College Course

Photography Club; Tau Sigma

Serious, honest, dependable, and good natured are but a few of the adjectives which describe Carl. Although Carl is a person of few words, he has made many friends during his stay in C. H. S.

He enjoys farming and out-door sports, particularly hunting. Whatever you do in the future, the Class wishes you the best of luck, Carl.

FRED R. TAUBNER — College Course

Football 3; Tau Sigma; Prom Committee

"Taub" is another of the boys who hail from "Down-Under." Although shy and reticent, "T" enjoys his quota of feminine companionship. When it comes to the little gray matter, Fred is second to none. In spite of his quietness, he can always be found in the middle of any mischief which emanates from the corridors during recess. Fred is our idea of a good friend, a good sportsman, and a boy worth knowing.

We are proud to acknowledge you as an acquaintance, Fred, and wish you the best of luck for future success.

HAROLD J. THOMPSON — Commercial Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club; Prom Committee; Class Book Staff

"Hap" is well-known as a faithful student and helpful classmate. He may be seen at most of our social functions and always manages to have a good time. "Hap" is very interested in all sports and some day hopes to become a famous sports writer.

The class of '43 wishes you the best of everything in your future work, Harold.

HENRY A. THOMPSON — College Course

Interclass Dramatics 1, 2, 3, 4 Thanksgiving Show 1, 2, 3, 4. Senior Show; Tau Sigma, Football 3, 4. Junior President; Ring Committee; Prom Committee, Class Book Staff, Photography Club

Now we present "Gunner", one of the most popular boys in C. H. S. In his four years in High School, he has gone all out for activities, ranging from Interclass Dramatics and Thanksgiving Shows to Football. Beside this "Gunner" is also very popular with the opposite sex.

Possessor of a swell personality and disarming smile, "Gunner" could always be found in the corridor at recess raising cain with "the boys." He hopes to be an Army Pilot some day, so let's all wish him the best of luck.

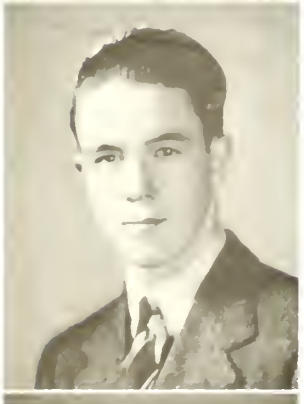
You have been all we could ask for "Gunner", and we sincerely regret to see you go.

CLAIRE P. TRAUTNER — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Here is a girl whose pleasant smile and pleasing disposition have won the affection of all of her classmates.

Claire, despite the great demand on her time—studying and working—has found time for other activities as well. She is particularly interested in roller skating. Her plans for the future are uncertain but the Class of '43 sincerely wish for her success and happiness.



WALTER TURNBULL — College Course

Tau Sigma, Photography Club

Perhaps we shall recall Walter as one of the quieter members of our class, but we will always remember him as a true friend and a loyal classmate.

During his four years with us he has definitely proven that he is not the studious type, but nevertheless his marks were of the passing grade.

His afternoons are spent driving a truck around town for Breed's, and that has made him miss many of the events in school.

His plans for the future are indefinite, but whatever he chooses, the class joins in with wishing him the best of luck.

HELEN D. VAGHINI — General Course

Photography Club

Helen's attractive appearance, and quiet, unassuming manner make her a unique figure in the Class of '43. Sports seem to be her favorite pastime, with skating at the top of the list. Her many friends vouch for her as a true friend and merrymaker, and her contagious laughter lightens the burden of our studies.

Helen is as yet undecided as to what she will do in the future, but her charm and likable personality will surely carry her to success.

MARY H. VAN HOOF — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Ring Committee; Prom Committee

Mary is one of those outdoor gals who loves skiing, tobogganning, skating and camping. Just watch her green eyes twinkle when someone mentions the week of camping with the P. A. L. S. Club at Bare Hill.

She has many activities other than sports, one of them is taking in the movies on Friday nights with a certain "you-know-who" from Harvard.

Mary has innumerable friends, as can be surmised from the number of the High School Gang that enter and leave the "Holland Cleaners" during her working hours.

Her future plans are as yet uncertain, but we wish her all the luck in the world.

BARBARA W. VAN TRAIN — General Course

Class Book Staff; Photography Club

Distinct personality, full of rascality that's Barbara. "Chooch" is well known among her classmates for her witty remarks and happpy-go-lucky ways.

She was not one for socials, but she always helped to make her class affairs a success.

Her plans for the future are indefinite, but whatever she does, we know she'll be successful. So here's luck to you, Barbara, from '43.

HELEN C. WELCH — College Course

Photography Club

Contrary to the general opinion that a hot temper accompanies red hair, Helen is a quiet girl with retiring manners. One of Helen's distinguishing characteristics is her good nature and ability to get along with others. She has friendliness, a readiness to laugh, and a pleasing disposition.

With all these qualities in her favor, we know that she will make a success of her career as a nurse. Best of luck, Helen, from the class of '43.

RICHARD A. WHEELER — Commercial Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club

Because of his quiet friendly manner, and willingness to help others, Dick has made many friends during his stay in Clinton High.

Dick was interested in sports and school activities but his outside activities (working on the farm in Bolton) prevented him from taking a very active part.

His plans for the future are uncertain but we are sure he will be successful. Good luck from "'43", Dick.

BARBARA M. WHITCOMB — General Course

Photography Club, History Circle

A friendly smile, a cheerful "Hi"—they are just a part of Barbara's pleasing personality. Her quiet gentle manner is indeed outstanding. "Barb" doesn't pretend to be one of the studious ones, but she does manage to get through all right.

Barbara is undecided about her future but whatever she decides to do we are sure she will succeed. So here's wishing you luck Barb from the Class of '43.

RALPH W. WHITCOMB — Technical Course

Interclass Dramatics 1, 2, 3, 4; Thanksgiving Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Tau Sigma; Senior Show; French Club President; Ring Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Class Book Staff; Photography Club

We can all recall having seen, at one time or another, a very studious-looking young man, walking through the corridors of Clinton High, a brief case under one arm and a few books under the other. Why, of course, it's "Ralphie".

"Star" has been in almost every dramatic presentation put on by the school, and is recognized for his singular acting ability. As for scholastical ability, we haven't seen a quarter yet that Ralph hasn't earned 5 or 6 testimonials.

"Star" is a very sociable fellow, and his good-natured wit has won him many friends during his school career. Good luck, Ralph, and sincerest wishes for success.

LILLIAN M. WILLIAMSON — Commercial Course

Photography Club

Out into the footlights walks charming Lillian Williamson, a tall, slender girl with lovely eyes, brown hair, and a winsome smile. Her poise and self-possession are qualities to be proud of. Being rather quiet and reserved, she may have escaped the notice of some of her classmates, had it not been for her talent as a singer. Her future is a promising one, and we all know it will be a successful one.

ROBERT WINSHIP — Technical Course

Senior Show; Senior Interclass Play; Tau Sigma; Photography Club

May we introduce "Robert" one of the most jolly fellows of C. H. S. He is of the happy-go-lucky type, full of wit, vigor, and laughter. His studies cause him little worry and he always comes out with a better-than-average mark.

His friends know him to be of an honest and good-natured character with a sufficient quota of seriousness. As Robert's future plans are as yet rather obscure, we hope that success will follow him throughout his endeavors. Best wishes from '43 Robert.

FLORA H. WITTIG — Commercial Course

Photography Club

As she possesses so many fine qualities, it is difficult to know how to begin describing Flora. She has a strong sense of humor, yet a seriousness about her school work; she has determination, but not the over bearing quality that usually accompanies it.

Although "Babe" is popular in school activities, her name always appears on the testimonial list. A swing pianist is she, and also "Queen of the Waltz".

As a vocation she has chosen stenography. Best of luck to you in your chosen field, "'Babe", from the Class of '43.

BARBARA V. WRY — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Prom Cimmittee; Thanksgiving Show 3; Class Ring Committee

We surrendered to Barbara's quiet loveliness from the very beginning. For how could one erect a barrier of resistance against her charm and poise? Her demeanor is one of lady-like perfection, and her exquisite taste is emphasized by her ability to wear clothes well. She possesses also a musical talent which lies in her fingertips.

Although her plans at present are uncertain, each of us knows what they will be in the future. All the happiness in the world to you, Barb, from the Class of '43.

BARBARA E. YOUNG — Commercial Course

Vice President 4; Thanksgiving Show 3, Shorthand Circle, Photographic Club; Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff

Barbara, with her friendly smile and quiet manner, has won the admiration and friendship of all of her classmates.

She is one of those rare people who can attend all social functions, and still be among the leaders of her class in scholastic standing; she is the envy of most of us, who consider ourselves fortunate if proficient in one field or the other.

Although her plans for the future are indefinite, we feel sure that Barbara will make a success of any profession.

And as the Class of '43 leaves C. H. S., we are both proud and happy to say that Barbara is one of us.

LOUISE ZADROZNY — Commercial Course

Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee; Class Book Staff

And now we present a blonde favorite of '43. She is none other than Louise Zadrozny, of the Acre, whose pleasing personality has won many friends for her during her school years.

"Lou" is a good student and her name can be found on the honor roll invariably; yet she found time for outside activities, perticularly for a certain out-of-town attraction.

Louise leaves with '43's best wishes for her success.

RAYMOND ZADROZNY — Commercial Course

Tau Sigma; Photography Club

A "flashy" smile is Ray's outstanding feature. No matter what the difficulty, he has always emerged smiling. His good humor and friendliness towards all have made Ray quite popular among his associates. His marks have always been above average, and undoubtedly would have been among the highest if so much of his time wasn't taken up by outside work.

Although his future is indefinite, we expect to see him in the service of our country in the near future.

The best wishes of '43 go with you, Ray.

RICHARD L. BULLARD — General Course

Photography Club; Junior Prom Committee; Football, 3

Here comes the Navy! Yes, Dick entered the armed services of his country a few months ago; and much to our surprise, he doesn't seem to have followed the famous tradition that sailors have a girl in every port. In all appearances, Dick is quiet and unassuming, but he's a good sport and a very popular classmate.

As far as studying goes, although not an honor student, Dick did manage to keep out of the red. He was also prominent in athletic events, and a supporter of the social world as well.

His plans for the future seem to be well under way, so all we can say is "smooth sailing, Dick, and best of luck to you!"

PETER CATALDI — College Course

Photography Club; Class President 2; Football 1, 2, 3, 4

We are proud to claim Marine Peter Cataldi as a member of our class. At the beginning of our Senior year, Pete joined the Marine Corps, and left us feeling a little bewildered to realize that one of the "high school bunch" had enlisted.

During his association with us, he proved himself capable, competent and "one of the gang." Not particularly studious, but getting through all right, Pete was always with us and one of us; and if he shows the same stuff on the battlefield as he did on the football field, we know Victory is just in the offing.

Some day, Pete, we'll meet again to renew acquaintances, but for now, Good luck and Godspeed.

ROBERT SANFORD — General Course

Football; Prom Committee

One of the nice looking, well-groomed fellows of our class is Bob. He has a swell personality and a way of getting people to like him.

Bob left school in January to join the U. S. Marine Corps. Knowing Bob, we are sure he will be a valuable addition to this branch of the service.

The class of "'43" wishes you the best of luck, Bob and looks forward to many pleasant reunions with you in the future.

KARL WHITNEY — General Course

Prom Committee; Photography Club

Karl is one of the boys who preferred the army to graduation. He left C. H. S. during the early months of this year for the U. S. Army and is now undergoing training at one of the camps.

The many friends which Karl has left behind will always remember him for his honesty and dependability. While at school, Karl had no yen for books, and rarely found enjoyment in studying; but he did manage to keep up with his class.

Wherever the army takes you, we know the spirit of '43 will go with you Karl. Best wishes and lot of luck from '43.

SENIOR SYMPHONY

ALLEGRO

1939-1940

At last we were in High School—how proud we felt! We were extremely gauche—peering questioningly into rooms in which we had no business to be, blundering up the wrong stairs and being shooed down again by an irate Mr. Comiskey, making a mighty effort to remember the locations of our different classrooms—but on the whole we liked it enormously.

There'd been a great deal of talk about the mid-year exams. (There always is). Their imminence cast a shadow on our Christmas vacation. We crammed desperately during January, and thought despairingly of what our parents would say if we should bring home a report card which recorded nothing but failures.

The fatal week came, and, on each day of it, we bathed in floods of violent dread. There followed a period of suspense, while we waited for the disclosure of our marks, and then (O, happy day!) we found we hadn't done at all badly. We concluded that high school was all right.

After that, we were able to enjoy ourselves a little. We "knew the ropes" and mid-years were a thing of the past. We drifted happily toward spring, engrossed in dances, baseball, and homework.

ANDANTE

1940-1941

We were Sophomores. There was an election, and we chose our class officers. This compensated somewhat for the dawning realization that we were a step lower, socially, than the lordly Juniors and Seniors. We hadn't noticed it before, but the upperclassmen looked down their noses at us. How strange.

Midyears returned. Despite our "experience", that phrase—"midyear examinations"—still had power to rouse the worry birds in us. It took courage, real courage, to pick up our cards and learn the worst, but we did it and heaved great signs of relief—we were safe! (Well, pretty safe.)

The rest of the year was pleasant. There were dances and baseball again, and, of course, spring fever. When we went to the Junior Prom, we began to think about the wonderful one that we would have next year.

SENIOR SYMPHONY

SCHERZO

1941-1942

Juniors—upperclassmen! We squared our shoulders and lifted our chins experimentally; it was wonderful! so we kept them squared and lifted. Remarkable—how superior we felt to the Freshmen and Sophomores.

December seventh; war. The girls could only think about it, but the boys gathered in groups to talk excitedly of joining up, and some of the Seniors really did enlist.

Midyears again. We knew by now that we'd never get used to them, but we could be fatalistic about them.

We chose our class rings. We went to dances. And then—

The Junior Prom!—our Junior Prom! We appointed committees for it, talked about it (when we should have been studying), and, at last, gave it.

FINALE

1942-1943

And now we are Seniors.

The photographer has come and gone, Miss Driscoll has renewed her annual search for "nice, full voices," and we have the feeling of being in the home stretch. In short, we are about to graduate.

This is what we have been looking forward to for four years.

But now we realize that graduation is not the end in itself that we once believed it to be. We recognize it as a transitional step between the secure past and a future which rests squarely upon our own shoulders.

Ardelle Bridges .	. Gloria Harvard	Mary Gannon . .	. Mrs. Harvard
Eleanor Murphy .	. Mother Barrett	Henry Thompson .	. Jack Barrett
Joseph Kilcoyne .	. Dr. Harvard	Ralph Whitcomb .	. Len McAllister

Jack Barrett and Len McAllister have just enough money scraped together to send for a "Banchester Spinner" fishing rod and reel, but Mother Barrett insists Jack spend thirty-five cents for a haircut. Len cuts Jack's hair, but something goes wrong, and they wrap Jack's head in bandages to prevent the havoc wrought by Len from being seen. They tell Jack's girl friend, Gloria Howard, that he was in an accident, but this is nothing to what happens when Gloria insists that her father, Dr. Harvard treat the injured patient.

The Class of '43 smashed all records in dramatic presentations. Beginning in 1940, this class gained victory after victory over all other classes of C. H. S. The members of the Class of '43 have always been well-represented in varied talents. Cooperation is the secret of their success in acting. A more versatile and talented group of young people could not be found anywhere; and so, to the Class of '43, we say, "Good luck!"

"THE KICK-OFF"*

Patricia McNally	Jean Ferris	Henry Thompson . . .	Red Field
Ralph Whitcomb . .	Dean Hornell	Joseph Kilcoyne . . .	Dick Stone
	Earl Rockwood . . .	Professor James

Collegiate cheers rend the air as the star football player awaits the verdict on his eligibility to play in the big game. Everything seems to rest on the shoulders of Red Field.—Red's chief interest is in passing his studies with flying colors, for he doesn't want to feel he is being financed through college merely to exhibit his prowess on the gridiron.

The winning of the big game not only is certain with Red in the line-up, but his romance with Jean Ferris, a student-secretary, passes the goal line for a win.

JUNIOR INTERCLASS DRAMATICS

"THE MELODRAMMER"*

Mary Gannon	Miss Hyppothrate, daughter
Eleanor Murphy	Miss Sneerpan
Ralph Whitcomb	Hero
Patricia McNally	Mrs. Hyppothrate, mother
Henry Thompson	Throgmorton Sneerpan, the villain
Karl Whitney	Policeman

This is one of the old melodramas, only with a definitely humorous twist, in which the villain threatens to foreclose the mortgage, unless the heroine will marry him. At the crucial moment, up pops the hero, shoots the villain, and proves that the mortgage was forged. The hero and heroine are married and live happily ever after.

"THE DRESS REHEARSAL"

Cast

Ralph Whitcomb . . . . Judge	Henry Thompson . . . Director
Patricia McNally . . . Madame	Emil Regonini . . . President
Kenny Garber . . . . . Son	Joseph Kilcoyne . . . Vocalist
Gene Cafarelli . . . Prop. Man	Robert Winship . . . Prop. Man

Ardelle Bridges, Bernice Smith . . . . Chorus Girls

Our last dramatic presentation, which was somewhat different from previous ones, was written and directed by Mr. Henry M. O'Toole.

It concerned the experiences of actors, actresses, and directors at a dress rehearsal.

Its many humorous incidents and the splendid acting of the cast provided an enjoyable evening of entertainment for the audience.

During our four years in Clinton High, our dramatic efforts have been very successful. For this we are extremely grateful to our directors; and to Mr. Christopher White, who has given unselfishly of his time and ability in making-up artists in all our productions, we offer our sincere thanks.

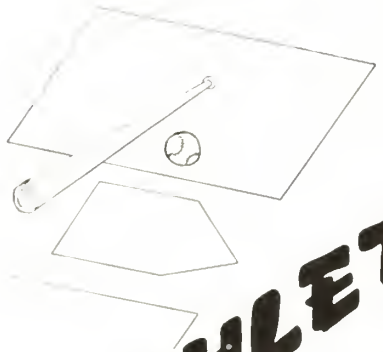
The story concerns the Whitney family, Ma and Pa Whitney and their daughter, Janis. They're expecting the arrival of an important guest whom they've never seen and whose visit portends a nice business order for Papa and perhaps lifetime happiness for Janis.

The fun begins with a case of mistaken identity when the guest is taken for the plumber. The cover to our funpot blows off when the plumber is persuaded to play the part of the guest, and from there on it's just one dizzy whirl of merriment.



ATHLETICS

BASEBALL

The coming of Spring means only one thing to those who are sports-minded, and that is baseball. In these trying times it is extremely difficult to carry on as in the past; so Clinton, with a mind on meeting travel restrictions and other similar obstacles, has greatly reduced the number of contests for this Spring.

Coach Joseph F. McCaffrey with an up-and-coming ball club, a copy of the fine teams he has fielded in the past years, faces a short but rugged schedule comprised of some of the finest nines in the county. Heading the list will be Leominster, Marlboro, and Hudson all of whom have been strong opponents in the past.

Coach McCaffrey has retained many of last season's outstanding stars and is ready to field a hard hitting and clever team. Mr. McCaffrey has turned out many winning combinations in past years in the fight for the Midland League pennant and there are no doubts his squads will experience the same success in coming seasons.

The seniors on the squad are Joe Connolly (Captain), Ken Garber, Joe Burgwinkle, and Bill Lang.

THE SCHEDULE

May 4—Leominster at Leominster.

May 14—Marlboro at Clinton.

May 15—Hudson at Clinton.

May 18—Marlboro at Marlboro.

May 22—Hudson at Hudson.

May 28—Leominster at Clinton.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CLUB

FOOTBALL TEAM

With the opening of the 1943 Season, Coach McCaffrey found himself faced with the usual problem, namely lack of veteran material—the previous graduating class having taken with it several of the first string men.

However, with the substitutes from the 1942 eleven and a few players appearing for the first time, the Coach moulded together a team that performed creditably against some of the leading teams in the county. The season's record was five wins and five defeats.

The Seniors on the team were as follows: Co-Captain, Peter Lavelle, Pete Mitchell, Gene Cafarelli, Pete Cataldi, Richard Contratti, George O'Malley, James Hallinan, Kenny Garber served as Manager of the team.

Clinton 0—Gardner 25. Clinton traveled to Gardner for the opening game of the season to meet one of the strongest teams in the Chair City's history. Although the team played hard and well, Clinton was unable to withstand the fine offensive and defensive playing of the Wildcat eleven and had to be content with the short end of the score.

FOOTBALL (Continued)

Clinton 7—Natick 26. In the first home game of the season, Clinton was defeated by a powerful, well-seasoned Natick eleven. The Green and Gold battled all the way but was forced to give way to the better team. Clinton's lone touchdown came as a result of a block punt recovered behind the Natick goal line.

Clinton 0—Milford 7. This was a typical Midland league game—a see-saw battle with both teams going up and down the field all day with Milford finally breaking the ice scoring on a pass over the line. With Cataldi running and passing brilliantly, the Green and Gold threatened several times but their drives failed to click when in pay-off territory.

Clinton 7—Webster 0. Clinton proved worthy of the new sobriquet "Commandos" by a brilliant victory over the Green and White of Webster. Combining a good ground and powerful passing attack, they outplayed the Webster team all during the game.

Clinton 12—St. Bernard's 6. Fresh from the Webster victory, the Commandos make it two in a row—this time with a win over a strong St. Bernard's team. Entering the game as the underdog, the Commandos gave a brilliant exhibition of heads-up football and proved more than a match for the Fitchburg team.

Clinton 13—Leominster 33. The annual game with the Blue and White ended in defeat for the Clinton team. Again this year, Leominster's reserve power proved too much for the Green and Gold. However, the Clinton team received the plaudits of the fans for their grand playing against such superior odds.

Clinton 0—Marlboro 26. A smooth clicking, hard-charging Marlboro eleven easily outclassed the Green and Gold. The Clinton boys just couldn't stop this powerful team which was out to avenge the defeat of last year. Marlboro's alert defense kept the Commandos from ever seriously threatening.

Clinton 14—Hudson 13. It was a hard running Commando eleven that downed Hudson in a night game at Riverside Park. With a great second-half comeback—scoring two touchdowns and the all important extra points—the Commandos walked off with their best victory of the season.

Clinton 21—Athol 7. With an excellent ground gaining attack, the Commandos added Athol to their list of victories. After recovering an Athol fumble early in the first period they scored at will—the Athol defense crumbling before the onrushing attack.

Clinton 19—Maynard 0. The annual turkey day battle played in Maynard's own backyard was another successful invasion by the Commandos. With Co-Captain Stuka having a field day—Maynard proved easy for a fast improving Clinton team.

The season was officially concluded with the Annual Rotary Club Banquet and the awarding of letters to members of the squad.

TAU SIGMA

The 1943 Chapter of the Tau Sigma was organized in April with forty-seven Senior boys under the direction of Lewis S. Gordon, Jr. of the faculty. Eugene Cafarelli was elected President; and Bart Murphy, Secretary-Treasurer. Meetings were held in the evening because so many of the fellows worked afternoons. Discussions on social manners and conduct were held at each meeting. Due to war conditions the usual dinner-dance will be omitted this year.

ORCHESTRA

Each year just before graduation, a group of talented musicians step forward to bring us the unforgettable music of our graduation.

The processional and recessional are especially effective. The class song is also presented with orchestral accompaniment.

The senior graduates in the orchestra are: Paul Butler—trumpeter; Victoria Stepaman—solo violinist; Jane McRell, Barbara Young, and Ardelle Bridges—pianists.

Much of the success is due to the untiring efforts contributed by Miss Elinor M. Driscoll, and we express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to her for the splendid work done.

JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom seems to be the brightest highlight in the career of the Senior Class. Unlike any other in Clinton High School, it was a "Patriotic Prom."

Decorations of red, white, and blue were festooned around the balcony and the stage of the Town Hall. The National Colors were again repeated in a huge flag hung above the stage, and in a large Uncle Sam's hat suspended from the ceiling in the middle of the Hall. Radiating from the brim of the hat, and encircling the whole room were streamers of patriotic hue. A spotlight made with numerous colors circled the Hall, and seemed to enhance the whole scene. The paramount event of the evening however, manifested itself when the lid of the Uncle Sam's hat opened, and innumerable balloons of all shapes and sizes floated down about the couples dancing.

Johnny Evans' Orchestra provided the music, and we had plenty of it, both swingy and sweet, and the dancers swayed easily to the smooth rhythm.

The whole event was a panorama of color—the dress suits worn by the boys, the multi-colored gowns of the girls, together with the patriotic colors of the decorations painted a rainbow of color and gaiety never before experienced in past events.

The unparalleled success of our Prom, however, was not easily attained, and is attributed to those who worked so earnestly and cooperatively with the Class President and Chairmen of the various committees. Only thus were our plans executed, and our Prom made one ever to be remembered by our class.

CLASSROOM HUMOR

Mr. [illegible]: What's your answer to the second example?"
[illegible]: "My answer is, the son is three times as old as the father."

Mr. Burke: "Didn't I tell you to have that history lesson prepared today?"
Grace Santangelo: "Yes Sir."
Mr. Burke: "Then why is it you can't repeat a single word of it?"
Grace Santangelo: "Oh, I didn't think it was necessary. I always heard that history repeated itself."

Mr. McCafferty: (after drawing two parallel lines on board)—"What relation are they to each other?"
Pete Lavelle: "Twins."

A bachelor's exclamation—"A lass!"
A maiden's exclamation—"Ah men!"

"Happy" Thompson: "Gee, that was a funny look, you gave me."
Paul Mohan: "You're right, you have a funny look, but I never gave it to you!"

Miss Kerrigan: "What! have you forgotten your pencil again? What would think of a soldier without a gun?"
Henry Thompson: "I'd think he was an officer."

Miss McIntire: "Eleanor, did you study your lesson last night?"
Eleanor Ball: "No ma'am, I thought it better to lessen my study."

Rumor has it that one of the Senior boys while walking around the outskirts of Lancaster, met a farmer of whom he inquired: "Has a wagon full of monkeys passed by here?"
To which the farmer replied, "Why, no, did you fall out?"

Joe Burgwinkle: (falling over one of Marty O'Toole's rubbers in the aisle)— "For goodness sake, whose suitcase is that on the floor?"

Mr. McSherry: "What are the effects of heat and cold?"
Butler: "Heat expands and cold contracts."
Mr. McSherry: "Give examples."
Butler: "Well, in summer the days are long, and in winter they are very short."

Mr. Sheridan: "Name the bones in your head."
L. Beck: Well, I have them in my head, but I can't name them."

Miss Thompson and the Senior girls, discussing the prevailing modes in "Sleeves"—all except one girl, who was writing:
"And how do you like yours, Miss Wry?" asked Miss Thompson.
I," replied the girl, somewhat puzzled—"Oh, I like mine with a gold chevron on the left sleeve."

Miss Gielons: "Why are you late for school, Jane?"
Jane Dzuzik: Because there is a sign on the corner that says, "School Zone, Slow."

Mr. Burke: Point to America on the globe, Miss Williamson.
Miss Williamson: There it is!
Mr. Burke: "That's right. Now Josie who discovered America?"
Miss Williamson: "Lillian just did."

Miss S. Smith: An anonymous person is one who does not wish to be known. (A few minutes later): "Who' that laughing up back?"
[illegible]: An anonymous person.

Miss Moran: "What kind of a watch did you get for Graduation?"
[illegible] O'Toole: "A wonder watch."
M. Moran: "What do you mean—a wonder watch?"
T. O'Toole: Well, every time I look at it, I wonder what time it is.

Miss Ryan: If you have twelve dollars in one pocket and two dollars in another pocket, what would you have?"
[illegible]: Somebody else's pants on."

[illegible] correct the sentence: 'Girls is naturally more beautiful than boys.'"
[illegible]: "Girls is more beautiful than boys."

[illegible], a short funny tale. Please give us an example, Lemanski.
Lemanski: "A monkey swings from limb to limb on his anecdote."

CLASSROOM HUMOR

TURNBULL: "I've had this car for years and never had a wreck."
WALTER O'MALLEY: "You mean you've had this wreck for years and never had a car."

J. DONNELLY: "How did you make out with your Mid-Years?"
B. MURPHY: "Oh, just like Napoleon."
J. DONNELLY: "What do you mean?"
B. MURPHY: "I went down in history."

MR. SHERIDAN: "Where is the elephant found?"
PHYLLIS BURNS: "The elephant is such a large animal it is scarcely ever lost."

MR. O'TOOLE: "Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"
TINA FOLIA: "At the bottom, I guess."

EMIL REGONINI: "Do you really believe that some people can tell the future with cards?"
GEORGE O'MALLEY: "Yes, I can. I take one look at my report card and can tell what will happen when I get home."

MR. DYER: (finishing a long algebra problem): "And so we find X equals zero."
TURNBULL: "All that work for nothing."

MR. MCSHERRY: "Every day we breathe oxygen. What do we breathe at night?"
STAR PUPIL: "Nitrogen."

PUPIL TO TEACHER: "You said the composition I handed in was both good and original and yet you gave me a zero."
MISS MCINTYRE: "Well, the part that was original was no good, and the part that was good was not original."

MR. O'TOOLE: "Have you had any stage experience?"
W. SAWERS: "Well, I had my leg in a cast once."

A high-school teacher was calling the roll in one of his classes.

Chorus: Yes!

M. MCSHERRY: "What's the formula for water?"
PATSY RUBERTI: "H_20."
TEACHER: "Right! "Now tell me the formula for sea water."
RUBERTI: "CH_20."

If my place was being flooded
And I feared that I might die,
I'd climb upon these jokes
Because they are so dry.

MR. DAVIS: "What is a Grecian urn?"
T. DIRIENZO: (waking with a start) "It depends on what he does."

MR. GORDON: "Use the word rectify in a sentence."
MARY GANNON: "My father says I will get rectify drive too fast."

THE CLASS WILL

To you, students, we bid adieu and silently steal away—at least, we would, but there is little left to steal. Forgive us, but you don't have to bless us—but enough of this sentimental slushery—to get on with the legal phraseology. C'mon, chilluns, "y'es glance!" Yes, glance your goo goo eyes over this history making, never-to-be-forgotten will.

Marguerite Anderson leaves for the "five and ten".
Eleanor Ball leaves her modest way and retiring manner to Kay McMahan.
Regina Bazydlo leaves quietly, but not unnoticed.
Peggy Bodman leaves for a local taxi-stand.
Ardelle Bridges leaves her ability to string the opposite sex.
Richard Bullard and Peter Cataldi, lucky stiffs, left early.
Joe Burgwinkle leaves Miss Kerrigan minus a verbal sparring partner.
Phyllis Burns leaves, taking her giggles with her for future use.
Nancy Burnside leaves her dimples to Dotty Barlow.
Paul Butler leaves—"Take care!"
Gene Caferelli leaves the Tau Sigma minus a capable president.
Frances Cataldi and Irene DeBlois leave together (still arguing).
Alice Cecchini leaves Rosie lonesome.
Mary Cipriani leaves with the "club".
Joe Connolly leaves his five-year plan to Bob O'Malley.
Rita Connelly leaves her red hair to Madeline Welch.
Richard Contratti leaves taking his "Mature" look with him.
Theresa Dirienzo leaves silently. (? ?)
John Donnelly leaves his suede jacket to the moths.
Helen Donohue leaves for California—(Court).
Patricia Droogan leaves a package of gum to Miss Gannon.
Sophie Dubovick leaves her dancing feet to Rose Soldi.
William Duncanson leaves for Greeley Hill.
James Durkin leaves with the girls singing "What's the Matter With Me?"
Jane Dziczek and Dot Peck leave together.
Evelyn Fogg leaves in a hurry.
Ella Fortugno leaves with a sigh of relief.
Ruth Frey leaves the same way she entered.
Frank Gadomski leaves—silence unbroken.
Mary Gannon leaves her "not under 50" sticker to Jimmy Mack.
Kenny Garber leaves his "dapper duds" to Allen Kelley.
Jean Garafoli leaves her height and begs the juniors to add to it.
Georgia Georgeson leaves—"Georgia Off My Mind."
Celia Gioka and Louise Zadrozny leave in the Chevrolet.
John Grady leaves to buy a pair of stilts.
Rita Gravel leaves—"Are you kidding?"
John Grealis leaves for the "Hall".

James Hallinan leaves to instruct wrestling at Fort Devens.

Gloria and Marie Hedblom leave a recipe for "Muffins".
Eleanor Heinold leaves Mr. Cobb looking for someone to carry the notice.
Dorothy Heinold leaves—with the boys watching her.
Wilma Henard leaves for the Post Office with a letter to .
Robert Hutchinson leaves his Fiffel Tower frame to Art Pappas.
Al Iacobucci leaves another empty space on the football squad.
Anna Hynes leaves with the gang.
Gilda Ingano leaves—but you'd never know it.
Helen Kalinowski leaves her cousins behind.
Pauline Kamper leaves the high school minus a very able dictionary.
Pauline Kartolas leaves with a smile.
Mary and Josephine Kelley leave us still mixed up.
Joe Kilcoyne leaves his vocal talents to "Fee" Roncone.
Mary Kittredge leaves for the "farm".
Russel Krackhardt leaves his (nothing under 90) ability to George Schott.
Dominic Lamberto leaves half his brain to some poor unfortunate who needs it.
William Lang leaves to play ball for Brooklyn. (They need him.)
Pete Lavelle leaves for his local draft board.
Edward Lemanski leaves Mr. Davis in peace.
Lucille Lenda leaves her compact to Rosemary Parslow.
Janet Les leaves after a final look at dear old C. H. S.
Theresa Lynch leaves to join the "Parade in White".
Theresa Mascioli leaves.
Adeline Mazzei leaves for the Press and . . .
Pat McNally leaves her tokens of past acquaintances to Ellen Tierney.
Lenora McNamara leaves for a "White Collar" job at Fort Devens.
Ray McNamara leaves for Burditt Hill to see? ? ? ?
Jane McRell leaves her sister to carry on.

Marie Sanmartino leaves to catch the school bus.
Grace Santangelo leaves her "peek-a-boo" bang to Barbara McCann.
Winona Sawers leaves for Sterling.
Robert Scarpa leaves for one of Clinton's larger suburbs—Berlin.
Ruth Schobert leaves for a long walk up Harris Hill.
Howard Senter leaves his line to anyone who wants to get entangled.
Bernice Smith leaves still talking about the Marines.
Aloysius Stachelek leaves his few words to Tommy Costello. (?)
Helene Stark leaves her sunny disposition to Charlotte Kramer.
Victoria Stephanian leaves the orchestra minus a capable violinist.
Carl Strunz leaves, still fast asleep as usual.
Fred Taubner leaves to take a nap elsewhere.
Happy Thompson leaves still teasing the girls.
Gunner Thompson leaves Ellen.
Claire Trautner and Helen Vaghini leave in silence.
Mary Van Hoof leaves for Holland. (Get it.)
Barbara Van Train leaves the halls still echoing with her chatter.
Dick Wheeler leaves, but not unseen. (Mmmm.)
Barbara Whitcomb leaves to join Wimpy at a hamburger stand.
Ralph Whitcomb leaves his brief case to anyone who wants it.
Karl Whitney leaves his ample proportions to John O'Malley.
Lillian Williamson leaves for the home of the Truant Officer.
Bob Winship leaves his acting shoes to anyone capable of filling them.
Flora Wittig leaves with Dotty for the Acre.
Barbara Wry leaves for the Army and it isn't the WAACS.
Barbara Young leaves with a "brown heart".
And—in conclusion, we, that never-to-be-forgotten class of '43, leave the rest of you unfortunates in peace.

And to you our parting advice is—a comb and brush.

CLASS SONG OF 1943

"ON TO VICTORY"

By Ardelle Bridges

This day of graduation is a culmination; now we're facing life anew.
Lending boys to the Army, boys to the Navy, Marines, and Air Corps too.
We leave our teachers and we leave our high school friends prepared to work for Uncle Sam,
And everything we're struggling for means peace in our native land.
We won't forget the fun we had with every classmate that we knew,
But we must start in fighting now because we have a job to do.
Maroon and gold have been our colors true, but they'll soon become red, white, and blue;
And our aim is on to Victory—boys and girls of forty-three.
Classmates all! Hear the call! Brave and true! Dare to do!
Our country cannot wait, we must not hesitate, we have to get to work right now;
We can't waste a minute, we have to get in it, and we will win somehow.
Although we have to sacrifice those things that help our boys to win this world-wide war,
We won't regret it when we've won—Uncle Sam is worth fighting for!

A FAREWELL
TO CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

The year 1943 will go down in history for many reasons—The successful completion of the Allied African Campaign; the meetings between President Roosevelt and Winston Churchill; and other equally important events. But we, the Graduates of '43, shall remember this year as the closing of one and the opening of another chapter in our lives.

Clinton High School has helped us prepare the foundation upon which we are to build our future.

We are all confident, that after everyone of us has found his or her station in life, we shall all remember how much of our success we owe to Clinton High School and its teaching staff.

Many graduates of Clinton High School of former years are today prominent in business and in public life; we, the Class of '43, hope that Clinton High School will some day be as proud of us, as we are of them today.

In the following pages will be found the names of those who made this class book possible—

THE ADVERTISERS.

It is not merely a business proposition to these men.

They are men who believe in

CLINTON HIGH IDEALS.

They are men who admire and respect

the young men and women of Clinton High School.

Let us not fail them.

Time after time we have asked for their aid—

and every time

they have come through 100%!

These men—some of whom have never had the privilege or opportunity to know as students the fellowship and spirit of C. H. S.—these men have been willing to aid us throughout all our years at Clinton High School.

READ THEIR ADS.

Patronize these merchants.

Show them that their faith in C. H. S. has not been in vain!

Show them that the Class of '43 will carry on the tradition of fair play in good old C. H. S.!

Let us help these men who believe in helping us!
